2020 Recital Program Information

NC Music Center's Annual Spring Recital

Saturday June 13, 2020

Central Piedmont Community College Overcash @ Tate Hall

- Tickets/Promotion

Students are welcome to invite any number of guests, however make sure to get a confirmation from your guest if they will attend. Recital Information will also be posted on Social Media, for their convenience to know the times and address. No individual tickets necessary however, please RSVP on your Recital Agreement Form the amount of guest you plan to invite.

- Recital Pictures

Individual pictures will be taken of all students during recital performance. You will be notified of photos as soon as they are available.

- Video Taping is NOT Permitted at the Recital

NO photography will be permitted

We have hired a quality staff to take professional photos and video of every child during performance and awards, and DVD are included in your recital fee- so please refrain from taking additional photos. Choosing to stand and take photos/Video disrupts the guest behind you and prevents them from enjoying the show. If you would like to take your own photos once the recital is over will be allowed.

- Dress Code

Formal recitals require students to dress up for the occasion in dress shirts, dress pants and dress shoes. Girls may wear dresses. Boys should wear a tie and sports coat, sweater or vest. Parents are strongly encouraged to dress appropriately and to make the event a day of celebration for the child. Dressing rooms will be provided backstage if student has an event to attend afterwards and needs to change.

- Trophies/Certificates

Every student will receive a performance certificate at the recital. Trophies are given based on length of enrollment i.e. 1 year, 2 years etc. Please verify enrollment information at the time of submitting your recital form. Also remember to support and be happy for all the students. Awards are given at the end of the recital.

- Recital Hall Policies

During the Recital all students will be backstage. This allows for the Recital to flow smoothly and avoids not knowing who performs next due to unexpected absences. Students will be backstage with teachers and Ms. Nyke. Students should be reminded by parents to maintain good behavior.

- Cooperation

All semester students work very hard to refine their performance skills for Recital for which their family and friends will be proud. Please be very sure to check custody arrangements, family vacations, work schedules, and other activities that might interfere with the Recital and plan accordingly. ABSOLUTELY NO REFUNDS CAN BE GIVEN FOR RECITAL PURCHASES.
